Honor with Books Program

The Mary E. Bartlett Library offers two ways to honor with books: Pick a newly published book in the subject area of your choosing and that book will be purchased and added to our collection, or pick an old favorite from among the more than 10,000 titles in the library's catalog. New books are increasingly expensive, so your selection will help keep our library collection current. Funds to plate existing volumes will be pooled to support the acquisition of reference materials and other extremely expensive items.

A bookplate bearing the name of the person being honored will be placed in your book and, if you wish, a letter of acknowledgement will be sent to the honoree. Also, a virtual bookplate will be placed in the library's catalog, which is searchable anywhere in the world. Each time someone opens your chosen book, your special person will be acknowledged. Help the Brentwood Library strengthen its collection while honoring a loved one, friend, special teacher or colleague in perpetuity. Make a gift to the Honor with Books program today!
